

Additional support and resources

There are external resources and support available to agencies to help with the recruitment and employment of people with disability. This is not an exhaustive list of providers, but are a good starting point for additional support.

Australian Network on Disability

This network offers Disability Confident Recruiter accreditation and provide recruitment and career development resources.

Anti-Discrimination Board of NSW

Provide a series of videos and podcasts on workplace adjustments and information on disability discrimination.

Australian Human Rights Commission

Provide guides and advice on the rights of people with disability

Safe Work NSW

Use the manager tools and resources, including training courses and support services to create a positive workplace culture and support staff who may be managing mental health issues.

Vision Australia

Provide advice on assistive technologies designed to minimise or remove the barriers faced by people who are blind or have low vision.

Auslan Services

Provide Auslan-English interpretation for events and meetings.

Sweeney Interpreting

Provide Auslan-English interpretation for events and meetings.

The Deaf Society

Provide Auslan-English interpretation for events and meetings.

