

Support during COVID-19

During the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) situation we are working with agencies to:

- implement and support flexible work practices
- understand recent changes to the GSE Rules to help you employ people quickly for COVID-19 related roles
- support public sector HR practitioners with enquiries about workforce mobility including the GSE Act, transfers and secondments and recruitment
- respond to bullying during the pandemic
- support employee wellbeing.

Tools to help you work flexibly

Resources to help employees and teams work differently and maintain productivity during COVID-19.

Mobility and employment

Fact sheets to help you mobilise and employ staff quickly during COVID-19

Support for HR professionals on workforce matters

Resources and guidance for HR practitioners across the public sector on the GSE Act.

Managing employee wellbeing during COVID-19

Resources on how to maintain mental health for managers and employees, LGBTIQ+ employees, employees with childcare responsibilities and other caring responsibilities, Aboriginal employees and remote and regional employees.

